

Turkey's East and West to be reintegrated

Despite the ill intentions of those outside Turkey, we will succeed. Regarding the explosions in Turkey, a deal will be made in the fifth and the seventh month and retreats will take place. The East and the West of Turkey will be integrated once again.

NOTHING IS WHAT IT SEEMS

We enter big wars and it appears like we are winning, but nothing is what it seems. We will suffer from numerous wounds. All of these events will lead to a mass migration. The migration route will be over the sea.

Federal state system to be established in Turkey

A hundred more years are needed for World War III. Turkey's 80 provinces will be divided into 27 states. Germany's Angela Merkel will pass away because of a heart attack in 2019. U.S. President Donald Trump will hold onto his position for a long time because the man is a lot of fun and has a brazen spirit - he is full of life. He will serve his term and then the American President will be a woman.

TURKEY WILL BE DIVIDED INTO TWO

The president of Turkey seems to be ruling over two places at the same time. Turkey will split into two. Everything will then go back to the routine. I also see covered women, which means that we will become an Islamic state. There is an important meeting in February. There could be a deal struck between the White House and the White Palace.

Turkey's territorial integrity to be protected

Starting on July 17, 2017, Syrians in Turkey will start to go back to their own country. The economic crisis in Turkey will begin to wind down after Feb. 5, 2017. In order for this to happen, some large companies in Turkey will have to make sacrifices. Everybody will understand that the only friends Turks have are themselves. The territorial integrity of Turkey will be protected from Edirne to Kars.

The blond man's hair will be dyed red

The collapse of Turkey's economy will truly be felt. Starving people will enter a state in which they don't even listen to their leader. The nationalists, religiously conservatives - all they will want is food. The blond man's hair will be dyed red.

NO MORE JOURNALISTS IN PRISON

There won't be any journalists in prison by May. An organization will be established to police the press. One of the journalists in custody will pass away and this will hugely impact the public.

The massacres will begin in the ghettos

I interpreted my dream with an expert friend who specializes in the Sufic Bektashi tradition. She asked me, "tell me the first thing that comes to mind when I say rocket." And I answered, "the state."

Two jaguars are running towards India

TURKEY TO BE RULED BY MONARCHY

A president wearing boots, like a soldier's uniform. Nice things could happen in the eighth month. There are going to be drastic changes in three years and the result will be good. Do you see the eye? There is a lizard on top of it. A man who seems to be looking into the future has emerged. You know how you set up a trap for a mouse, just like that. They are not able to retrieve the trap.

ENERGY OF LOVE TO REPLACE RELIGIONS

Borders are shifting globally. There are major changes and migrations across the world map. People will aggregate in one part of the world where there is food and water. The sun will rise in the West and set in the East, just like in the holy texts. The new savior will bring agnosticism. Religions will disappear - they will be replaced by the pure energy of love.

Gold and US dollar to increase in value

Syria will find peace. The executive presidential system will be accepted in Turkey. With Donald Trump as president, relations between the United States and the world will become strained. There won't be any new currencies. Oil will continue as is, gold and the U.S. dollar will keep increasing in value. We are going to be accepted into the European Union but Turkey won't approve. Global warming will continue.

WAKING UP TO A MIRACLE

Things will hit rock bottom, but one day, we'll wake up to a miracle. This land is the holy land - nothing bad will happen here. Nothing bad will happen to Istanbul. Turkey will go back to the era of Turgut Ozal [1]. We are going to be free like we were back then. RITA

US dollar to drop in value, improvements in the economy in March

Turkey is like a wagon. They belittle it, but Turkey will be in front of all the other wagons, pulling the rest. Those who ran from here will come back. Or those who were thinking of escaping will stay here. The U.S. dollar will drop in value and there will be an improvement in the economy in March.

NO WARS IN THE FUTURE EXCEPT FOR THE WAR IN SYRIA

2017 will be a better year for the world. Even if peace comes to Turkey, nothing will be as it was. There could be disagreements among countries in the European Union, which will impact their relations with Turkey. Americans will be happy with their new president. He will govern well. The relations between Turkey and the U.S. will be better than they were during the time of Barack Obama. U.S., Russia and Iran will continue to disagree about Syria. Even if the war in Syria ends, trust will never be established. Even if the executive presidential system is approved, it won't be comfortable. It will be followed by big problems. Saudi Arabia and Iran will make peace. In the future, there are no wars except for the war in Syria. The press will be under pressure in 2017 as well. There will be times when they will be freer, but then pressure will be re-established soon after. ABDULLAH

FEDERAL STATE SYSTEM TO BE ESTABLISHED IN TURKEY

Chaos and terror will continue until 2018. The country's economy will be devastated and we will be seriously damaged. We will live both inside and outside of war. It won't affect Istanbul, Ankara, Izmir, the Aegean, the Mediterranean or the Marmara Sea, but the East will go through a complete phase of loss. A federal state system will be established by the end of 2017. Turkey's 80 provinces will be divided into 27 states. Twenty-seven states? Or let's say 30. A federal state system will be established and this system will be in effect by the end of 2017. In 2017, Turkey's economy will be seriously affected in terms of real estate and agriculture. Even shopkeepers will be replaced - there will be a new class of the rich. This new rich class will be people we don't yet know. What about press freedom in Turkey? That will never exist. If the system changes, then maybe. But there should be no expectations of press freedom for another five years. We will have the right to expect freedom after 2021. What are your insights for eastern Turkey? Kurdistan will be established because there will be a federal state system. The system that Kurds are demanding will be formed. Yet the people who wanted this change in the system will continue their lives in other cities. I don't think Turkey will be harmed but the economy will be destroyed. You say that everything will be settled in 2018. Could you elaborate further? By 2018, at least the federal state system will have been established. Everybody will know their place and this will be when the Kurds' rights are granted. As 2018 ends, the world will slow down. Since the world's perception will have changed, Turkey will enter a phase of slowing down. 2019 is when business owners will be happy again - they will have healed. More martyrs will sacrifice their lives in Turkey until 2018. What are the major changes on a global scale? The United States will destroy itself in eight years. The U.S. will enter a phase of self-destruction with natural disasters like hurricanes and earthquakes. Will there be a World War III? Yes, but another hundred more years are needed for this. Germany's Angela Merkel will pass away because of a heart attack in 2019. U.S. President Donald Trump will hold onto his position for a long time because the man is a lot of fun and has a brazen spirit - he is full of life. He is not going to be assassinated, he will serve his full term and then the American president will be a woman. What about European Union-Turkey relations? The EU will dissolve, each country will continue with its own system. People will be citizens of their own country, just like people from Turkey. Continents can't be split apart but EU citizenship is set to end. Germany is in an economic crisis. Russia started to improve in the last four years. I know that in 2021, we will come second in world economy. I don't know who will be the first and

I'm not counting the U.S. - they will be totally destroyed because of natural disasters, so we will be the second, with all our treasures and resources.

WE WILL SUFFER FROM MAJOR IGNOMINIES UNTIL 2018 What's most important for Turkey is land, so I think developers should take this into consideration. They shouldn't construct tall buildings on the Aegean coast and they shouldn't be tearing out trees. As our main treasures and resources are on this land, we need to protect this wealth. Our currency will become stronger and Europe will appreciate our money. The Turkish flag will be a symbol of pride once again. They will realize that Turkey is not an Arab country. We always had this spirit or knack for stealing, but this will change and everybody in this country will be more mature in 2021. In 2021, everybody will be able to point out Turkey on a map. We will suffer from a lot of ignominies in 2018. After 2018, we will reach the light - the light will be with us after 2018. So the constitutional changes for an executive presidency will pass in Turkey? Yes and Sumeyye Erdogan [2] will rule the country. 2021 will be a time to excel. If you walk around naked on the street, nobody will get an erection. It's normal for men to wear heels in the U.S. and we will experience such things here in 2021. When will Turkey hold a Pride Parade again? The state of emergency will be extended by one year and so will the national mobilization. This will continue until the end of 2018. The parade will only be allowed after this. Terror attacks will continue locally until 2018. Fethullah Gulen [3] will be extradited to Turkey. Russia will put pressure on this situation as well. Child abuse will continue and underage children will be married off. Our perverted country won't change, but in 2021, we will reach the best point in everything. In the seventh and the ninth month of 2019, the EU will have completely dissolved. The mausoleum of Mustafa Kemal Ataturk, the founder of modern Turkey will no longer exist. Taksim Square will also be reconstructed. What's the future like for the tenets of Ataturk? The system will be completely disbanded. Will the war in Syria end? Syrian President Bashar al-Assad will be killed. There is also a war in Egypt, but there are investments coming into Egypt from all over the world. Egypt will be crowned again and it will become stronger. What are the chances for living outside Earth? There will be a transition to global citizenship. After 2027, Turkish scientists will come to very prominent positions across the world. EMINE

TURKEY'S TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY TO BE PROTECTED

Starting on May 12, the independence period of Turkey will begin. Turkey has been under difficult circumstances for 12 years. A decision in May will dissolve the government. A coalition government will be established and two parties will merge in the Parliament. The ruling Justice and Development Party and the Nationalist Movement Party will merge. This will continue for a while. The Republic of Turkey will continue, guided by the principles of its founder, Mustafa Kemal Ataturk. There are attempts to create an environment of chaos in Turkey. One of these outside forces is the United States, and it won't succeed. The secular order will win. There won't be a civil war. The unrest will be over by the end of February. Through the support of Russia, after nine periods - nine weeks or nine days - the threat of civil war will be neutralized. The territorial integrity of Turkey will be protected from Edirne to Kars. There will be disorder and chaos in the U.S. In September 2017, all disorder in Turkey will end. In November 2018, a new party will emerge, formed by young people guided by Ataturk's principles. Terrorist organizations, including the outlawed Kurdistan Workers' Party and the Islamic State, will begin to lose their power starting on May 5. Over 14 months, there will be renewal and some major changes. In November 2018, a new order will be established. Outside forces like the U.S. and Israel won't succeed in creating a new Middle East. Starting on July 17, 2017, Syrians in Turkey will start to go back to their own country. The months of January and February in 2017 are difficult. There will be four or five incidents that involve bombs. The economic crisis in Turkey will begin to wind down after Feb. 5, 2017. For this to happen, some large companies in Turkey will have to make sacrifices. Everybody will understand that the only friends Turks have are themselves. DILEK

TURKEY WILL BE DIVIDED INTO

TWO Turkey is very dark right now - it's under a lot of stress. I see an agreement. It's something that will be presented to the people of Turkey. There is another bloody explosion, approximately 20 days, three or four weeks before this deal and it's very bloody. We're going to raise the flag of Turkey in a small place, close to the border because of something in relation to this explosion. It's a different kind of place, beyond what we know of or what we currently have within our borders. It could be a military quarter that hasn't been visible before, which hasn't been constructed yet, maybe an administrative building where troops will be stationed. Right afterwards, I see two bad events with a lot of bloodshed. All of these happen within three months. Then, there will be a deal struck between our leaders and the leaders of strong states. A statesman from the other side will present an agreement to end all of this, it will be fully realized. This deal is something that was determined outside Turkey. TWO PEOPLE WILL EXPIRE Then there will be two events that will upset Turkey. It could be about two important statesmen - they will be toppled. This will be sensational, as these two people will expire. What I see is akin to two stubborn goats trying to cross a bridge at the same time, fighting each other for the right of way. The situation will continue as such and a big part of Turkey - through the privatization of a company, a bridge, whatever - will be handed overnight to states that oppose it. This will strike a major blow to the Turkish people. I see the perpetrator to be Russia. There are disagreements with Russia because I see people wearing kalpaks from across the sea. It's very conspicuous - these are people from a place right across us. There will be an explosion. There will be a larger-scale activity than what the Turkish soldiers have carried out thus far - a more expansive operation. People from rival countries across from us will be happy. They will be content due to their domination of Turkey, or the property and land gained. When they are content, Turkey will find peace. Peace could come by the end of 2017 or the beginning of 2018. I see ships. Our naval forces, in addition to our ground forces, will be involved in something. Ships will set sail just like they did in the old times. Things will also be happening across the sea. The president of Turkey seems to be ruling over two places at the same time. Turkey will split into two. Everything will then go back to the routine. I also see covered women, which means that we will become an Islamic state. There is an important meeting in February. There could be a deal struck between the White House and the White Palace. We will be shifting in a certain direction. All of these will take place suddenly, with a swift decision, without voting. The results will be presented as victorious but there is a real division, chaos and three bloody events. Again, ships will set sail - we will be attacked on water as well as on land. A fleet of ships might sink and disappear. There are two statesmen from abroad that we will either have to fight or somehow deal with. One of them will constantly be meddling in Turkey - he is like a schoolteacher being told what to do by the principal. There will be someone from the outside, constantly getting involved in Turkey. Someone else is ordering him around. It's as if the chain of command is connected somewhere else, shifting from within our country to the outside. I SEE A NEW BIRTH A person or some people from Turkey will be transferring things from Turkey to a person or country that appears to be ruling over us. It will be a constant flow. This could be the Syrian border, it could be the United States, but Turkey will be used as a screen - it will grant access and the right of passage to roads and the Bosphorus. This flow is definitely from Turkey to somewhere else and Turkey's role is logistical. Lastly, I see a new leader, a new party, a new birth - I'm not saying a form of resistance but a new formation. There is a large bird and this bird has spread its wings. It's becoming stronger and this new formation is something that is hidden from us. It could be a party or an alternative administration, but it's kept a secret and we don't yet know about it. This will be on people's radars in the second half of 2017. I see signatures below. It will begin in four months. It will present new perspectives. ZEKIYE

Turkey will undergo a process of transition in a few years. The economic crisis that we're currently in is only temporary. Turkey will go from chaos to a new beginning. There will be three more years of distress, but then everything will move in a positive direction. Although it seems impossible at the moment, Turkey will become a European Union member. Turkey will start moving up. Despite the ill intentions of those outside Turkey, we will succeed. Regarding the explosions in Turkey, a deal will be made in the fifth and the seventh month and retreats will take place. The East and the West of Turkey will be reintegrated. After the third month of 2017, journalists, people persecuted for their thoughts and parliamentarians in prison will be released. Those arrested for political reasons will remain in prison. Turkey will go through a difficult transition period. Everything will be set in place only after five years. Although there are attempts to provoke a civil war, they will not succeed. Turkey will get to have a new beginning. United States President Donald Trump's relations with Turkey will be misaligned; there will be communication problems. The relations will become normal only after a while. Some of the problems between the two countries that began during former U.S. President Barack Obama's era will take some time to overcome. Trump will improve these relations. The war in Syria is a proxy war, directed by those outside Syria. There will be developments in the negotiations over the summer. Decisions about peace will be made. Cruelty will end in August but unfortunately, many more people will perish until then. Right now, Russia is undergoing a financially challenging period. A deal will be made that satisfies both parties. This is a must for economic gains. Turkey has the stronger hand. There is resentment between these countries but an agreement will be signed. They will celebrate victory with this agreement. Then, everything will be easier. One of the two countries will start to invest in the other. GUNES

NO MORE JOURNALISTS IN

PRISON After the regime change, the name of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey will be changed to the Assembly of Representatives. Members of Parliament will be called senators. President Recep Tayyip Erdogan will make the major shift to an executive presidency but he won't remain in that role. He is going to pass away nine months after. A state of national mourning will be in effect and there will be disagreements about the site of his burial. Kemal Kilicdaroglu [4] will be voted out and replaced by Gursel Tekin. [5] With the transition to the federal system, Kurds will be semi-autonomous. The name of the federation could be Kurdiye. But Kurdistan will not be used as they want to be well-received by others. In the middle of March 2017, the U.S. dollar will become stable at an exchange rate of 3.40. Until then, the rate will be around 3.70. Because of the migrant crisis, Turkey will receive aid and foreign investors will come. We are faced with a natural disaster and a big plane crash in the very near future. This will trigger unrest in the country and we'll be stuck in a state of mourning for a long time. There will be migrations because of the natural disaster. The plane accident will, in fact, be a terror attack, but this will not be possible to discern. A bomb will explode at an international event that takes place outside of Istanbul. We are going to be heavily criticized by Europe. The prime minister of a redeemed European country will say, "Turkey is a terrorist country." Explosions will continue across the country and become more frequent. Erdogan would like to improve his relations with members of the press. There won't be any journalists in prison by May. An organization will be established to police the press. One of the journalists in custody will pass away and this will hugely impact the public. At this stage, The Republican People's Party will take a more active role. There might even be an assassination attempt on Kilicdaroglu. There is chaos. THE U.S. WILL

ANNOUNCE GULEN'S DEATH

The United States will announce the death of Fethullah Gulen's. [3] Hakan Fidan [6] is holding onto a lot of secrets and has made copies of these secrets, so it will not be easy to let him go. The U.S. might use its nuclear bomb in Incirlik air base very soon and provoke a huge disaster like Sept. 11. Nuclear bombs will bring the end of the world. President Donald Trump's politics are advantageous for the world, but unfavorable for the U.S. He will make decisions that are at odds with the country's interests. In the very near future, the U.S. president will change. THE SUN

RISES IN THE WEST AND SETS

IN THE EAST The end of the world will be by famine. The real threat is in the sky. This could be spiritual or it could be a meteor rain. In addition, there are also nuclear disasters. Bombs will be deployed. Between 2028 and 2030, the world won't be in good shape. It will be possible to transplant limbs or organs without having to seek histocompatibility. And this will trigger an increase in human trafficking. The gap between social classes will grow rapidly. With the deployment of nuclear bombs, the world will turn upside down, which is an omen of the apocalypse, as outlined in the holy texts. The sun rises in the West and sets in the East. All of this will happen in less than a hundred years. The Islamic State group will no longer exist in 2019. We're going to start hearing another name in its place. The war in the Middle East will never end. UKRAINE IS THE ONLY

COUNTRY TO NOT SUBMIT TO

RUSSIA What's happening right now is not World War III. The war will begin with nuclear bombings. The beginning of the world was in the Middle East. The end will also be in the Middle East. The U.S. will offer Turkey an active role in the Middle East and ask Turkey to weaken its bond with Russia. The bombs that went off right before Barack Obama left office were not coincidental. He wasn't able to finish off his plans. The United Kingdom and the U.S. will trigger a regime change in Iran – they want to carry the mess in Syria to Iran. They want Russia to have to deal with that. Iran becomes very chaotic – they're going to attack Saudi Arabia. Ukraine is the only country to not submit to Russia and it will be backed by many countries because of its stance against Russia. Just like Turkey, Ukraine's geopolitical position will become more important. Russian President Vladimir Putin appointed Trump as the U.S. president. SEMI

THE BLOND MAN'S HAIR WILL

BE DYED RED A breaking point that I cannot fully articulate is being expressed all across the world. The people of Turkey will have to get ready. The collapse of Turkey's economy will truly be felt in the near future. Starving people will enter a state in which they don't even listen to their leader. The nationalists and religiously conservatives - all they will want is food. The blond man's hair will be dyed red. Blood will be spilled and he will drown in this blood. In the very near future, arrested parliamentarians will be released. Recep Tayyip Erdogan will continue to spill innocent blood to become the president, but in the near future, his family will be affected by the curse of the innocent and something terrible will happen to someone close to him. Russia will draw Turkey into the sort of trouble Turkey won't be able to get out of by itself and this trouble will bring the end of Erdogan. NOFA

NOTHING IS WHAT IT SEEMS

People of Turkey are trying to survive a major depression. They feel the need for independence, creativity, worldly pleasures and daily concerns. The impact of what has happened will last for a while and it will not be easy for people to get over. It will take years. Alcohol and drug use will increase. We enter big wars and it appears like we are winning, but nothing is what it seems. We will suffer from numerous wounds. All of these events will lead to a mass migration. The migration route will be over the sea. There are security problems in travel via land and air. At a time when everything is so complicated, a young man, either a politician or a soldier, will shift the flow of it all. This young man is not someone we know from either of these fields. His peer, another charismatic man, will also work to change the flow of events in Turkey. There will be a partnership and cooperation between the two men. We will only see the result of these events. But history will include both of their names. These two people will help the rebirth of this country. They will disperse the dark clouds over Turkey. Law will finally reign. The war in the Middle East will come to an end everywhere simultaneously, as if a button was pressed. This will strike everybody but those who voice this will not be taken seriously and will be blamed for conspiracy theories instead. There is a big chance that George Clooney will enter politics. Donald Trump won't be president for too long. The presidents after him will work actively. The conditions under which the body of Dr. James Bedford can be reawakened from its frozen state in cryocapsule will not be fully realized but the reawakening will be attempted anyway. There will be a major surprise. There is a third option in addition to his waking up or not. MUALLA

ENERGY OF LOVE TO REPLACE

RELIGIONS The current negative circumstances of Turkey are moving the country towards regeneration. There are lots of deaths and many more are on the way. After the unexpected and chaotic death of President Recep Tayyip Erdogan, there will be a civil war in the country. I see people with weapons in their hands on the street. It's not clear who is what - a soldier, police, or civilian. The United States or the United Nations will send their soldiers to help Turkey. Our country might be invaded. In the very near future, there could be a natural disaster or an accident that can cause mass casualties. A savior will arrive on Earth. Their coming will be exactly like what's described in holy texts and is already being planned spiritually. The people who can contribute to the realization of this miracle have been selected or are being selected now. Borders are shifting globally. There are major changes and migrations across the world map. People will aggregate in one part of the world where there is food and water. The sun will rise in the West and set in the East, just like in the holy texts. The new savior will bring agnosticism. Religions will disappear - they will be replaced by the pure energy of love. GAMZE

TWO JAGUARS ARE RUNNING TOWARDS INDIA There is a computer game called Crysis, the men in armor are running there. A bird emerges out of its egg. A man has turned away with his body, he doesn't want to leave. But his legs are in the opposite direction and pushing him to leave. A woman who has her legs open like a compass is running towards him. A giant is stepping on flowers underneath his feet. The evolution of a living being is taking place. First as a fish. Then a combination of fish and lizard. Then a lizard. Two jaguars are running towards India. A pine tree falls over. A stingray is holding a rose with its tail. A nun with a cross on her head is gliding through the air. A woman holding a huge clay jar is holding a drill in her hand. An eagle is flying towards the top of the food pyramid.

A man is being pulled in four directions with his arms and legs tied. A woman without legs is trying to stand upright. A man with horns is holding a scale. A huge pot is boiling. The Haribo bear is holding a Viking horn in its hands. A wolf attacks the stick man, jumping over a panda.

Papa Smurf is on top of a flying saucer, throwing a boomerang. Four kangaroos stand behind each other. (Boomerangs and kangaroos might be about something to do with Australia.) A woman is looking at the sky with a cane in her hand. Dinosaurs with wings are perched on the branches of a huge tree. A rabbit has gotten onto a merry-go-round. The cookie monster is looking at a falling rock, terrified. There are two seahorses and a huge woodpecker wondering in the depths of the ocean. A bear is howling like a wolf on the side of a mountain. One of the sculptures on Easter Island is taking out the Japanese woman in traditional clothes, who is holding a fishing pole from the lake full of jellyfish. A brain is wearing a cape and is sitting on a flying throne. A man with a giant bean on his head is driving a military Jeep. BURAK

TURKEY TO BE RULED BY MONARCHY What does it mean when the lead melts slowly? That Turkey is affected by the evil eye. That Turkey is in distress. Is this the meaning of the delayed melting? It means that there will be difficulties. Turkey has been affected by the evil eye. They want to rot Turkey from the inside, that's what they want to do, but they won't be able to do it. Look at this, it has darkened. There is distress lying ahead in May for Turkey. May God protect us. Let me tell you something, Turkey will be ruled by a monarchy. What do you see? A king, a table. A king and a table. With a big key in his hand, a key shaped like a sword, like silver, like gold. Only God would know. Monarchy or sultanate? It's a monarchy. Not a sultan but a king. It's melting so slowly. There are many eyes on Turkey. Evil eyes. The artery, the eye. What's the most admired place in Turkey, like the eye in the body? A sea, an eye. Izmir? Istanbul? The most popular place is Istanbul. That's what they're aiming at. The sea is right here. Do you see it? See what? This king. His crown just glowed. Are there any other interesting things? The lead is not melting; there is so much weight. Why didn't we think of this before? Why didn't we pour lead for Turkey? For the homeland. Let me tell you, there will be light at the end of the tunnel, there will be a change in governance, I said monarchy but I don't know. Maybe there will be another type of rule. Then there will be light. Four or five places could be in trouble. Distress. Oh wow! Does the slow melting mean that some things will be difficult? Yes, it's not melting, very difficult. Look at the evil eye. A lion has emerged. Which place has a lion-like emblem? You can see the tail. EITHER IN THREE YEARS OR THREE MONTHS, EVERYTHING WILL BE DANDY A lot of countries have the lion as their symbol. There are three steps. Either in three years or in three months, everything will be dandy. Let's hope that it's three months but I don't think so. Look at the snakes, they are like foxes. They're trying to conquer the country from within, destroy it from the inside but they're not going to be able to do it. They are dark, there are eyes. Do you see, it's like a map of Cyprus, the flag is placed in a pit - the eye is Istanbul. Is there going to be a third round? Yes. Thank God there are no needles. There is the king again. We thought it'd be nice to pour lead for Turkey. I have a stabbing pain in my stomach. You know, they say labor cramps are like this, it grabs you. There is a rabbit. Four countries are going to come together. They're going to sit at a table and make a decision. The man with the round head is the leader. He has big eyes. I wonder which country he leads? With upright ears, a strange face. Do you see it? From the side, yes. Could this be

Donald Trump? I don't know. This is what I see. With strange, fox-like ears. Four countries have emerged. Is there any other president who wears such boots? A president wearing boots, like a soldier's uniform. Nice things could happen in the eighth month. There are going to be drastic changes in three years and the result will be good. Do you see the eye here? The lizard on top? A man who seems to be looking into the future has emerged. You know how you set up a trap for a mouse, just like that. They are not able to retrieve the trap. But I just got hot all over! There are snakes, centipedes all over. (The lead explodes.) I even got some on my hand, it splashed all over the place. It exploded. We dispersed all the enemies. Turkey will find serenity. What is this? They want to take away the Turkish flag. But they won't succeed. We made it explode. This looks like a person. It's like a person, trying to pull on the flag. We made it rot. Turkey is haunted by the ill willed. I can say that the evil eye comes from men with bad intentions. Yes? Let's poke those eyes. Taste this salt. I tasted the salt. What? What's supposed to happen? It tastes like salt but there is also sourness there. Sour and hot. God willing, we are going to get rid of some bad things. It's good that there was an explosion. NEVIN

U.S. DOLLAR TO DROP IN VALUE, IMPROVEMENTS IN THE ECONOMY IN MARCH

Everybody is waiting for Turkey to be knocked out but Turkey will never fall. Turkey has a magnificent century ahead. The flag is proudly undulating at the very top. Hegemony is making a comeback. Turkey has a very prominent position in the global future. Everybody will see this in the next four years. They claim war but we are already at war. I don't see a civil war like what is feared. Do you see the caftan in the coffee cup? This caftan is a sign that Turkey's future is bright and that everybody will be chasing after this caftan. Actually, there are troubled times in the first month or month and a half after the New Year, but they aren't a big deal. Better days will come after these troubled times. The United States will be in distress. Although it appears that they will be able to overcome anything, a huge blow will strike them. Disorder awaits the people of the desert, like Arabs, in the near future. There are two countries here, one looks like England and the other seems to be Israel. There is a small piece of land here and a huge letter I. Most probably, this marks its destruction or demise. Everybody thinks that it's very strong, but it will drown in its own spit. Israel and England will be in disarray around the same time. There will be moments when both are going to retract something they had said earlier. England is at the back, wearing armor, quiet. The U.S. seems to be in more danger. When you look at the whole world, Turkey is shining bright after the chaos. The other sides will be shaky. The territorial integrity of Turkey will be protected 100 percent. I don't see another coup attempt in Turkey. The country is at the door of a large building, one foot inside and the other, outside. Something will happen, like a miracle, and the dust will settle. Terror attacks will increase in other countries, but they will decrease in Turkey. The U.S. and Arab countries will be impacted by terror. The U.S., which seems to be patting everybody on the back, will have its masks drop. President Donald Trump will not be in power for long. He has supporters but there are more who don't like him. Trump's relationship with Turkey will develop in a way that benefits Turkey. Again, there is the White House and some are bowing before it. Some are holding swords, calming down the two unruly countries. Their calming seems to decrease terror attacks in Turkey. Turkey has become a bride. Turkey is like a wagon. They belittle it, but Turkey will be in front of all the other wagons, pulling the rest. Those who ran from here will come back. Or those who were thinking of escaping will stay here. The U.S. dollar will drop in value and there will be improvements in the economy in March. GULEN WILL NOT BE EXTRADITED Fethullah Gulen [3] will not be extradited. He will be destroyed on his own; he will just die. He will either get tuberculosis or cancer. For his demise, the number five is given, either in five months or five years. An executive presidential system is not apparent. Turkey will remain in the state of emergency until the end of this year and the next. The number two is given; maybe in three years the state of emergency will be lifted. The state seems to be holding a scale. On the one side is the freedom of all imprisoned journalists. Some specific people appear to be targeted and this is the reason for all that's happening. MERAL

GOLD AND U.S. DOLLAR TO INCREASE IN VALUE

The foundation of the Turkish Republic: Oct. 29, 1923, 8:30 p.m., birthplace Ankara. When I look at Turkey's celestial map, the rising sign is Cancer, the moon is at Gemini and the sun is at Scorpio. The first six months of 2017 are very difficult. Then a balance will be struck and the presidential system will be accepted. Our relations with Russia will improve.

It will take time for our relations with the Middle East to get better. The war in Syria will keep drawing us in, but eventually, there will be peace. With Donald Trump as president, the relations between the United States and the world will become strained. Global warming will continue. There won't be any new currencies. Oil will continue as is, gold and the U.S. dollar will keep increasing in value. We are going to be accepted into the European Union but Turkey won't approve. There will be an economic crisis across the world and in Turkey in February, March and April. 2017 is a difficult period for the world and for Turkey, especially during the first six months. The maps show that the parliamentary system will be in duress until a balance is struck. The tension will be triggered by the first lunar and solar eclipses of the year; the first lunar eclipse is in Leo on Feb. 11, on the Aquarius axis. The first solar eclipse of the year is at Pisces, on the Virgo axis. February, March and April will be very difficult. NURAY

TRUMP TO EXTRADITE GULEN

The executive presidential system will be established in Turkey but it will not be a sultanate. President Recep Tayyip Erdogan trusts only the public and doesn't want to make them unhappy. This is why Islamic law won't be in effect, because he knows that if religious law is applied in Turkey, people won't be happy. If he asks women to cover and ban drinking and smoking, people will revolt and they will destroy the palace. He is aware of this, so Turkey will never become Iran. It's not easy to repress and subjugate the Turkish people. We could be like Qatar. Everybody will live happily. The best thing about the executive presidential system is that the municipality system will cease to exist. Terror is almost over in Turkey-the bombings will stop very soon. Erdogan doesn't want to have the Kurdistan Workers' Party oppose him. He has various plans about the Kurds, but he doesn't yet dare state them publicly. He wants to settle Kurds on a piece of land that he takes away from Syria. But there is still time for that. Erdogan's most precious child, his daughter Sumeyye [2], will be divorced from her husband. United States President Donald Trump is making various statements about Muslims but he doesn't see Turkey as a Muslim country. He really cares about its geopolitical position and resources. He will prove his friendship by extraditing Fethullah Gulen. [3] Turkey will win the war in Syria. The United States and Russia will make a deal and Syria will continue to work on their behalf. In this set of allegiances, they are closer to Russia. In the field of health care, cancer will be cured but a new disease will replace it. SERPIL

OWNERSHIP TO BE REDEFINED

We always have the energy to think but we don't know what we need to think about. We are lost in the question of "What do I need to do with my life?" that we forget the capacity of our energy to do everything. All individuals need to become aware of the energy in their own body and reflect this energy into the field they are working in. Waiting to constantly do better makes people unable to do anything. Our claim over the water pushed us to believe that we rule over it but the moon is real. We are less powerful than the moon. Get out of the water, climb on top of a hill that is behind the moon and don't stop until you see the moon. Movements directed by faith will trigger major changes. As people continue to rely on others and their systems to protect them, they will become even more vulnerable. People's opinions can change, no matter how deeply rooted they are. Beliefs are finite. We need to do new things, to clean up beliefs and take our thoughts to the next level. Justice in thought needs to be well-established. People will realize that money and life are one and form a whole together. Ownership will be redefined. The movements of money can displace strong people. Remaining passive is not the solution. Money will always be spent on hedonism. Leaders will take their policies to the next level. The patriarchal energy's dominance in international relations will subsist. There will be a period of scorching that's also renewing. It should not be forgotten that money rules over everything. Technology just started to change our lives. Digitalization is redefining the concepts of love and belief in a novel and energetic way. Technology will continue its progress, putting itself in the center of the screen. The only reality in life is the love of survival. We need to stop relying on our mothers, our caretakers and the ability of modern medicine to heal us. We can heal ourselves. Change your habits, your modes of production. Justice has to be established. Those who are certain of what they are doing will have to reconsider their positions. Get inspired by your emotions. Those who are happy with where they are will fall. There's a final judgment. Scientists are the new age's rock stars. As new solutions are found in every area of life, they are presented to us as an enchanting show. In these times when we find a way to know everything, information loses its value. Scientific perceptions of many centuries past are about to be depleted of meaning. ALIHAN

PEOPLE WILL REVOLT IN THE U.S. AND CHINA

There will be positive economic developments. It appears that Turkey will make deals with other countries. President Recep Tayyip Erdogan is making preparations for new developments. New structures are forming. Explosions and terror attacks in Turkey are imminent. Decisions that are aimed to end terrorist events will be signed. There will be a new intelligence organization, reporting directly to the president. With the emergence of this organization, terrorist activities will diminish in Turkey. The economy will improve in June or July. There will be deals and new enterprises with Japan and other Far Eastern countries. A giant leap will be made in the aviation industry. In the very near future, parliamentarians will change. In their stead, strong leaders will be selected. Devlet Bahçeli [7] will sign favorable deals with Erdogan. In Syria, deals between different countries will be struck. Turkey will play a prominent role in these deals, negotiating. The deals will be concluded in September or October. The Syrian state will recuperate. Turkey will experience a rebirth in tourism. The changes will become apparent in February 2017. In five years, we're going to have the world in our hands. In terms of materiality and spirituality, the fertility card has appeared, meaning peace. There will be chaos and distress in China. The people are under a lot of pressure economically. There will be a revolt among the people and with that, a decline will begin. Their relations with Turkey will remain positive. President Donald Trump will go through a period of uncertainty. The people will revolt. First they will put pressure on the people but once they realize that they can't solve things that way, they will make amends. Trump will receive support from the Senate. The European Union and the United States will have to remain on good terms with Turkey, which will benefit all parties. Relations will improve. Deals on mines in the Black Sea and eastern Anatolia will be made. The EU and the U.S. will have to sustain good relations with Turkey for their own benefits. Russian President Vladimir Putin will start to visit Turkey more often. Important economic deals will be reached. These deals could be about space, rockets or sending satellites - they will be vital. Freedom of press will be ensured through a governmental legislation. SUNDUZ

WRITERS AND PAINTERS WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ENTER TURKEY Orhan Pamuk [8] will be imprisoned. He won't be able to enter Turkey like many other writers and painters. Can Dündar [9] will be able to return to the country for a while once the transition into the executive presidential system is completed. President Recep Tayyip Erdogan will be pressured to allow this from the outside. Music in Turkey will be more heavily influenced by the Arabic style and so will Turkish cinema. Art will turn its face to the Middle East. Nobody will remember the name of the Turkish Republic's founder, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk. But then we will go back to where we started. The republican system will make a comeback. ISMAIL

ALL REFUGEES TO BE SENT BACK TO WHERE THEY CAME FROM

This is an era that began with hope in Turkey but I see much trouble ahead, especially in the financial markets. There could be trouble in the second and the third month. In the fourth month, a prime minister - maybe ours or maybe another country's - sits at a table of solidarity. In the fifth month, troubles will begin again for Turkey. Turkey will be desperate in its foreign relations and in the sixth month, other countries will corner Turkey. I see trouble again in the seventh month. In the eighth month, Turkey and a country close by will be provoked into disarray. The eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh months are very troublesome for Turkey. They're going to try to agitate Turkey's relations with neighboring countries. They will try to throw off the balance between countries that have coastlines, for example Greece. The fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth months are very difficult for Turkey. In December 2017, Turkey's luck will turn. I can say that while there will be improvements in April 2017, there will be distress again. They're trying to make us fight each other. Here is the devil's card - it shows that Turkey will always be struck from behind. This will happen because Turkey has good intentions and supports those who fall - this is why we have so many enemies.

THE WOMAN SADDENED FOR TURKEY There is an attempt to balance out the imbalance. You can see Turkey's desperation here but we won't lose hope. "The man embracing his responsibility" - I interpret this to be the Prime Minister. Everybody is hopeful but I can say that troubles will continue. Big decisions will be reached in Ankara. The state will exercise its powers. The United States will want to establish a base near Izmir. I can say that the U.S. is eyeing Izmir. They have their hopes tied to Izmir. World leaders will start to meet more often in the fourth month. The woman saddened for Turkey is Germany's Angela Merkel. She appears to be a peacemaker between Germany and Turkey. When we check to see if that is indeed the case, I only see harmony between Turkey and Germany, nothing troubling. I see heartbreak and animosity about Russia. Then things will become softer. While Russia appears in a positive light, they will also be imposing rigid rules. There will be new financial possibilities with Russia, such as exporting goods. There are other countries that will be working to ruin our relations with Russia. Turkey and Russia will again become polarized. Just as we think that things have improved, there will be problems in the seventh and the eighth month. Right there, things taking a negative turn, hostility. But they will not succeed to make Russia and Turkey complete enemies. The more trouble there is, the more they will support each other. There will be a situation in Syria that we absolutely should not get involved in. There will be a trial. The last word will be the Americans'. Their country is ruling over the world. The U.S. will change the destiny of this situation. They will be negotiating everything. They will have the last word. The U.S. appears to want to establish a base on the Aegean, taking ownership. They will also establish a base near Mersin. They have plans for a place where a river from outside Turkey meets the sea, like Thrace. They have plans for three different places in Turkey. The situation of Edirne, of Enez will be discussed. They're going to try to gain influence here. They will be paying a lot of money to Turkey and we will open the gates. At the same time, the U.S. will make us rely on another country. For example, they will say Turkey must work in collaboration with Greece arguing that both countries would benefit. A FEMALE MINISTER WILL SAY SHE'S AGAINST HOMOSEXUALITY It appears that the migrant deal between the EU and Turkey is a very difficult one. The negotiations are to benefit Turkey. All migrants and refugees will be sent back to their countries. There will be some who won't want to leave but the returns will be forced. It shows here that they will not be able to pass through Greece easily. The migrants' escape will be prohibited. The migrants won't want to go back to their countries because they are afraid but they will be forced to go back. There will be restructuring because it is necessary to prepare for the influx of migrants. There will be great statements in the third and the eighth month. Then, migration will decrease but there will still be crossings by sea and a lot more deaths. Will this improve? Even though improvement is difficult, serious decisions will be made about this. The Roma people will ask for their rights and they will succeed. I see a very bright future for the Roma. The troubles for homosexuals will continue. A female minister will say that she is against homosexuality. These words will become huge in the public realm. Gays and lesbians who want to revolt will be attacked. The enemies of the homosexuals will create a troublesome, violent environment. There is hope for homosexuals but there is also a lot of trouble. Again, there will be trouble for Thrace in the fourth month. I also see trouble at the end of the summer. How do you see the future of the archaeological dig in Enez? There is a lot of value right where the river meets the sea. Cups and rewards, but you will also feel that some places are magical and have a talismanic quality. Places that are close to Enez, near the water that flows through it. A king's cave will be revealed here. It says here that it's a tomb for the king and his family. It's on the right side of the entry to Enez, it could be west of Enez, beneath the castle, close to the water, near Maritza. You could have digs with positive outcomes there. I can say that there are digs near the road and the pine forest. SAFAK

SAFIYE

THE FUTURE IS QUANTUM MECHANICS AND PROBABILITIES Turkey is located in the Middle East where there is a struggle over land. This will continue in 2017. I wish I could say optimistic things, but it's very difficult to do so. The Middle East is on the brink of new country formations. There will be small states emerging after all these struggles. I wish I saw a future in which people made love but unfortunately, it doesn't appear so. I can say that things will get worse economically. After all of these negative things, I see a bright future. There is no transparency between the European Union and Turkey. Turkey is not being honest. Turkey won't have an active role in Syria, no matter what it does, and it will have to abide by the wills of stronger countries. United States President Donald Trump's statements are very strong; I see that he will achieve what the Democrats failed to. The Republicans will play a much stronger role in the Middle East and they will take better steps for results. The balances in the Middle East will benefit the U.S. and will be to the disadvantage of Turkey. There is a tactical affinity between Russia and Turkey but Turkey will not be able to benefit from this allegiance. What you perceive as the future is today, it's the past. When you form a bridge in between, you see the future. The future is quantum mechanics - it's all about probabilities. XALO

WOMEN TO SAVE THE FUTURE

Turkey's fortune is sealed behind a gateway. The residues of the coffee grounds resemble the Alps - the relations with the European Union are going to be defining the next era for Turkey. There is a thick snake, like a cobra, which is stealthily moving from the West to the East, raising its head near Sivas in eastern Anatolia. This is also where past massacres began in Turkey and thus the trauma is repeated. A woman with big breasts is nursing western Turkey. She is a fair-skinned woman, like the pagan goddesses of Anatolia. There are many Venuses in this cup, pointing to women saving the future here. A man with his legs spread has one foot in the Aegean sea, pointing out an expansion or an integration connecting things that we deemed separate until now. A young Apollo is lifting his head from the trenches - a new leader will be male and intelligent, wise, moving slowly as one should. There is a landslide, highlighting the importance of soil in the new Turkey - without our soil and agriculture, we cannot move forward. MERVE

SYRIANS WILL SETTLE IN THEIR HOMETOWN What is the general situation of Turkey and the world in 2017? There are money energies in Turkey. I don't see any major troubles here. The future of Turkey will be very positive, starting in the sixth month. I don't see any major wars or big troubles for Turkey. There were enough troubles in 2015 and 2016. I see that 2018 will be much better. Law and legislation seem to be in the foreground. There are huge successes in those areas. We will be cleansed from our troubles. What about European Union-Turkey relations? There will be deals made with five more countries. The ties will become stronger because there is an effort here. New deals will be made after March and they will be stronger. What about the situation in Syria and Syria-Turkey relations? I see that the war is completely over in two to three months. The deaths, troubles are over. Everybody will settle in their homeland. Syrians will settle in their homeland and this is how a balance will be struck. What about the relations between Russia and Turkey? I see that the president of Russia will change. There will be a sudden shift and changes will take place. A person with white hair will come to lead Russia and then, their relations with Turkey will improve.

Germany and Turkey? Angela Merkel is making an effort for Turkey. Her effort will lead to brightness, to do well. We'll receive a lot of support from her. SEASONS WILL CHANGE Will global warming continue? Will there be new sources of energy? I see that energies are changing. There will be change after May or June in a more positive direction. Climates will change once again. Will there be new currencies? What will be the balances between oil and gold? There will be progress made about oil in the next two years but there seems to be a brighter energy in terms of money. Especially after July 20, sources of money will change for Turkey. Now, we're moving towards the light. Will the parliamentary system continue? Will there be an executive presidential system? The presidency is obvious here. It seems to be for the better, things will be more set then. The president will change. How will Recep Tayyip Erdogan's career continue? It's obvious that he will go very far in his career. He will save Turkey from its troubles. But there will also be a woman leading us. She is also opening things up for us. What does the future of the press look like in Turkey? There will be changes but in a positive direction. Their stars will shine bright. There will be more freedoms, especially for women and for the press. What will happen in the political career of Merkel? There seems to be distress. Something troubling will be overcome. She will strike a balance after the sixth or the seventh month. They will also move forward with money energies. Let's ask about the future of Thrace. There is peace and happiness in Thrace. They won't be able to mess things up here. You see here, they tried to divide it up, but they won't succeed. There seems to be no trouble in Thrace. THE NAME OF THE FUTURE PRESIDENT, M... How about the minorities in Turkey? They have tried hard to batter Turkey but they won't succeed. There will be major constitutional changes but they all seem to be pointing in a positive direction. There will be major celebrations in Turkey this year. Three important events will take place. Turkey will enter the EU this year because balances will be struck. I see here that Turkey's distress is over. There will be great developments globally towards the end of May, beginning of June and we will all receive some good news. I don't see any distress. It seems that the name of the future president begins with an M. There is a huge M here. There are no major death tolls or wars. All of these are left behind in the past year. Four countries in particular will be cleansed. There will be ceasefires in some places. There will be major changes in the constitution, everybody will be astonished but in a good way. Turkey's star seems to be rising this year. Russia, Germany, the United States will all have great relations with Turkey. Agreements will be reached. There are five people who will come to Turkey in the near future. They will sign agreements and make very good deals with Turkey. We still seem to have three months of trouble. Great things will happen after the spring. CAGLA

THE MASSACRES WILL BEGIN IN THE GHETTOS I live in a gated community made up of three buildings next to each other. Behind it is a park and there isn't any construction around it. In my dream, my husband and I leave our apartment and I see that a rocket is launched from the park. It's as if a rocket is being sent into the sky. The rocket keeps going up and we just keep staring. Then it explodes midair and falls to its original launch site. Then the earth trembles and balls of fire can be seen. People start running. As I think about how I can best help people, I remember my own child. I start running towards my apartment. When I look at the buildings, I see that ours is the only building left standing. I interpreted my dream with an expert friend who specializes in the Sufic Bektashi tradition. She asked me, "tell me the first thing that comes to mind when I say rocket." And I answered, "the state." 2017 will involve such bombs. But in 2018, the state will do something that they believe serves its purposes, which will backfire and it will cause everything to be destroyed. People will be killing each other on the streets. Massacres will take place. These massacres will begin in the ghettos of Istanbul like Gazi or Bagcilar. I saw in my dream that my own house was still standing. This, for me, shows that the only thing left standing will be my ideology. SEVGI

TRUMP WON'T BE PRESIDENT FOR LONG Terror attacks will continue and become more frequent. Major cities around the world and in Turkey are under threat. Istanbul will soon become a ghost city. Those who are able to will go abroad and those who remain behind will go back to where they came from. Chaos will continue until the end of 2018 in Turkey. There are no bright days ahead. The economy will be dismal until the summer. President Recep Tayyip Erdogan will escape to the Middle East. He will have to. Even his lodgings are ready. He had a task. He completed this task and in a short while, they will no longer need him. He is worried about his children. He is in the process of leaving Turkey. His son Bilal or one of his daughters could be in harm's way. A short while after this war is over, there will be peace and the war for water will begin around 2027. Donald Trump will not be the president of the United States for long. Either he will be forced to leave his post or he will resign. He was surprised to be elected president. He doesn't know anything about politics. Muslims across the world will be in distress. This war will soon become the war of religions. And Trump will be very influential in this shift. He might have been elected president to set off these developments. Russian President Vladimir Putin is very powerful. He is the one behind the war now. He is a very dangerous man. The relations between Russia and Turkey could become tense at any moment. CANSU

SECURITY MEASURES FOR PUTIN AND ERDOGAN TO BE INCREASED An earthquake can be triggered in Turkey between Feb. 11-26 due to solar and lunar eclipses. With Saturn and Mars in square aspect in 2018, hostilities between Turkey and other countries will become obvious. The peace talks for Syria won't succeed. In the summer of 2018, opponents of Syrian President Bashar al-Assad will hold the cards. This will harm Turkey. In 2018, problems in Turkey that are rooted in Syria will see an increase. The Turkish economy will improve after October 2017. Transition into the executive presidential system will be completed by then. Security measures for Russian President Vladimir Putin and Turkish president Recep Tayyip Erdogan will increase in February 2017. There might be assassination attempts. At the end of 2018 and beginning of 2019, one or two countries will leave the European Union. The EU will transition to a new structure in 2020. With the arrival of United States President Donald Trump, there will be diplomatic tensions between different countries. The relations between the U.S. and Russia will deteriorate. The U.S. will be faced with terrorist attacks in June, July and August 2017. Trump will suffer from difficult circumstances at this time. The U.S. will not extradite the self-exiled Muslim Fethullah Gulen [3], but he will suffer because of pressures by all the different parties involved. Belgium will be vulnerable to terror attacks in July, September and October 2017. France will suffer from issues related to internal security between December 2017 and January 2018. The queen of England will pass away in 2017. The Islamic State group will start developing nuclear weapons. Between June 2020 and February 2023, nuclear weapons will become prominent on the agenda. With the transition of Uranus into Taurus in March 2019, natural life and agriculture will gain importance once again. DIDEM

THE NEW SYSTEM WILL NOT PASS

The country is changing for the worse. There will be war. Many people will die. Things will happen before and after the referendum. The presidential system won't pass. Everybody will be on the streets, revolting. The president will be in distress. He has enemies among those close to him. Syrians will return to their own country. SERI

OWNERSHIP TO BE REDEFINED

A woman with big breasts is nursing western Turkey. She is a fair-skinned woman, like the pagan goddesses of Anatolia. There are many female Venuses in this cup, pointing to women saving the future here.

SECURITY MEASURES FOR PUTIN AND ERDOGAN TO BE INCREASED

There might be assassination attempts. The Islamic State group will start developing nuclear weapons. Between June 2020 and February 2023, nuclear weapons will become prominent on the agenda.

Trump will extradite Gulen

8

President Donald Trump doesn't see Turkey as a Muslim country. He really cares about its geopolitical position and resources. He will prove his friendship by extraditing Fethullah Gulen. Turkey will win the war in Syria. The United States and Russia will make a deal and Syria will continue to work on their behalf.

Writers and painters will not be able to enter Turkey

SYRIANS WILL SETTLE IN HOMELAND

I see that the war is completely over in two to three months. The deaths, the troubles are over. Everybody will settle in their own homeland. Syrians will settle in their homeland and this is how a balance will be struck.

THE DEEP STATE OF THE US WILL ELIMINATE TRUMP

In 2017, economic chaos is to be expected in Turkey. Together with political chaos, the country's demise is impending. Although there is huge economic turmoil in Turkey because of United States President Donald Trump, the deep state of the U.S. will eliminate him. With the resolution of the migrant crisis between the European Union and Turkey, Turkey will enter the EU. This, however, will prove to be a move against Turkey's interests. Syrian refugees will return to their country. Then, the EU will no longer need Turkey. Syria will be divided into three federations: Kurds, Shia and Arabs. This system will deeply affect Turkey. Trump is an absurd leader. Russia is very resentful. Russian President Vladimir Putin will stab Turkey in the back. There will be more sustainable energy used in the world. CINAR

Trump won't be president for long

The war for water will begin around 2027. Donald Trump won't be the president of the United States for long. Either he will be forced to leave his post or he will resign. He was surprised to be elected president. He doesn't know anything about politics. Muslims across the world will be in distress. This war will soon become the war of religions.

Only God knows what will happen in the future

COUP IN TWO MONTHS

This July, the situation will improve and there won't be a civil war. Something will happen to President Recep Tayyip Erdogan because of FETO [10]. There will be a coup in two months. Erdogan will be gone. The members of FETO will take care of him. FETO will cause trouble for Erdogan. Everything will become clear by the end. The war in Syria will be over. Syrians will go away. When they leave, everything will be better for Turkey. We won't be able to join the European Union. Turkey will become a monarchy. Erdogan will leave and will be replaced by someone else. The relations between Russia and Turkey won't improve. Erdogan will be poisoned by people close to him, just like Turgut Ozal.[1] EMINE
